

Functorial decompositions via colimits

George Peschke

We explain how a certain commutation formula for colimits may be used to obtain functorial decompositions of objects in functorially cocomplete categories. Via elementary examples we demonstrate the utility of this point of view.