

Some incoherent thoughts about coherent spaces

Dirk Hofmann

In this talk we study Nachbin's ordered compact Hausdorff spaces (= stably compact spaces, see [2, 5, 4, 6]) and the closely related coherent spaces (= spectral spaces) under the "module point of view" [1]. Based on this approach we introduce possible metric twins of these notions and show that they indeed look very much alike.

References

- [1] CLEMENTINO, M.M. and HOFMANN, D. (2009), Relative injectivity as co-completeness for a class of distributors, Theory Appl. Categ. 21, No. 12, 210–230, arXiv:math.CT/0807.4123.
- [2] FLAGG, R.C. (1997), Algebraic theories of compact pospaces, Topology Appl. 77 (3), 277–290.
- [3] NACHBIN, L. (1950), Topologia e Ordem, Univ. of Chicago Press, in Portuguese, English translation: Topology and Order, Van Nostrand, Princeton (1965).
- [4] SIMMONS, H. (1982), A couple of triples, Topology Appl. 13 (2), 201–223.
- [5] THOLEN, W. (2009), Ordered topological structures, Topology Appl. 156 (12), 2148–2157.
- [6] WYLER, O. (1984), Compact ordered spaces and prime Wallman compactifications, in Categorical topology (Toledo, Ohio, 1983), volume 5 of Sigma Ser. Pure Math., pages 618–635, Heldermann, Berlin.