

Locally-compact objects

Maria Manuel Clementino *

We propose a categorical definition of locally-compact Hausdorff object which gives the right notion both, for topological spaces and for locales. Stability properties follow from easy categorical arguments. The map version of the notion leads to an investigation of restrictions of perfect maps to open subspaces.

*Joint work with Walter Tholen.