Distributive Laws for Pseudomonads

Francisco Marmolejo

Pseudomonads are the pseudo version of monads. Distributive laws between such are the pseudo version of the classical distributive laws: replace the two triangles and the two pentagons by invertible cells, plus coherence conditions. In this talk we will link this concept of distributive law with Gray-monoid homomorphisms.