Coherence in ω-categories

Thorsten Palm

A definition is presented of what may be called an "ω-category with a weak layer": The top level associativity for $n + 2$ terms is replaced by an n-dimensional polytope, of which the face lattice can easily be described considering syntactical features of the terms involved.