Singular multi maps - A relaxed multi category

Craig T. Snydal

We begin by introducing the notion of singular binary multi maps. We then show that composing these multi maps gives a map with a new type of singularity. This gives rise to the notion of a relaxed multi category - a category whose multi maps are parameterised by trees.